

THE PIRANDELLO CRUCIFIXION

by Tito Amodei

Fausto Pirandello was a son of the famous Italian playwright Luigi Pirandello. He was a painter of great merit and a man of outstanding culture, even if somewhat shy and withdrawn. He has left us a number of Crucifixion paintings which are important in the field of contemporary art. All this is described for us by the author of this article.